

Southeastern Massachusetts' Pembroke Hospital and Arbour-Fuller Hospital have outstanding opportunities for

Inpatient Psychiatrists

Enjoy highly competitive compensation and benefits, a schedule that allows for work-life balance, and the stability of working for the largest private mental health system in Massachusetts.

- Reasonable caseload
- Weekday schedule with no call or weekend work required
- Paid moonlighting available for additional compensation
- A benefits package that includes, but not limited to: health and dental insurance, retirement savings with company match, paid time off including CME allowance

Pembroke Hospital in Pembroke, MA, is a 120-bed freestanding psychiatric hospital. Services include adolescent, adult and older adult inpatient units, as well as partial hospitalization programs for adolescents and adults. Inpatient and outpatient electroconvulsive therapy services are available. The hospital is currently recruiting for adult psychiatrists including those with addictions or geriatric specialties.

Arbour-Fuller Hospital is a 103-bed private psychiatric facility in South Attleboro, MA. Inpatient units treat adolescents and adults. It also houses the Commonwealth's only adult inpatient intellectual disabilities specialty unit. The hospital has an adult acute residential treatment program and adult partial hospitalization program. The hospital is currently recruiting adult psychiatrists.

For more information on these or other openings, contact Andree Paige office: 617-390-1437, cell: 617-429-4240, e-mail: andree.paige@uhsinc.com

Arbour Health System provides a continuum of care that includes evaluation, crisis stabilization and treatment for children, adolescents and adults with mental illness, dual diagnosis and/or addiction disorders. All hospitals are accredited by The Joint Commission and licensed by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health. Visit us at www.arbourhealth.com.